Dear Appeals Review Committee:

SUMMARY OF APPEAL

MUSC Health is submitting this formal first-level appeal on behalf of patient Louis Wisoky (MRN: MUSC6784417, Member ID: HUM416532893, Group: GRP-31881) regarding the denial of Claim MUSC-20251101-4577-2 for emergency department services rendered on November 1, 2025, at MUSC Health University Medical Center. The claim was denied on December 2, 2025, under CARC 27 ("Expenses incurred after coverage terminated") and RARC N30 ("Patient ineligible for this service"), with the payer remark stating: "Member was not eligible for benefits on the date of service billed." The total billed amount of $4,178.15 remains unpaid. MUSC Health respectfully contends that this denial is inconsistent with the coverage record on file, which reflects an active Humana Advantage plan with a coverage period of January 1, 2024, through December 31, 2026, fully encompassing the November 1, 2025, date of service.

CLINICAL BACKGROUND

Mr. Wisoky is an 88-year-old male with a complex, longstanding medical history that includes chronic congestive heart failure, chronic obstructive bronchitis, osteoporosis, gout, and a history of cardiac arrest, among other active conditions. He presented to the MUSC Health University Medical Center Emergency Department on November 1, 2025, and was evaluated by Marcus T. Bledsoe, DO (NPI: 1770615243). The encounter was classified as an emergency room admission with a primary diagnosis of other psychoactive substance dependence, uncomplicated (F19.20), a condition with documented onset in the patient's medical history. Given Mr. Wisoky's age and the breadth of his active comorbidities, emergency department utilization for acute evaluation is clinically consistent with his established medical profile. CPT code 99284 was billed, reflecting an emergency department visit of moderate-to-high severity, which is appropriate to the complexity of this patient's presentation and documented conditions.

BASIS FOR APPEAL

The sole stated basis for denial is an eligibility determination — specifically, that coverage had terminated prior to the date of service. This determination is factually incorrect based on the coverage information maintained in MUSC Health's records. Mr. Wisoky's Humana Advantage plan (Member ID: HUM416532893, Group: GRP-31881) carries an effective coverage period of January 1, 2024, through December 31, 2026. The date of service, November 1, 2025, falls squarely within this active coverage window. No lapse, termination, or suspension of coverage has been communicated to MUSC Health, nor does any documentation in the case record support such a finding. MUSC Health verified coverage in connection with this claim submission, and the eligibility data on file does not reflect any gap or termination event. The application of CARC 27 and RARC N30 therefore appears to result from an administrative error in Humana's eligibility system rather than any actual change in the member's benefit status. The clinical services rendered — an emergency department evaluation of a medically complex, elderly patient — were both medically appropriate and covered under the terms of the active plan.

REQUESTED ACTION

MUSC Health respectfully requests that Humana conduct a thorough review of Mr. Wisoky's eligibility records for the date of service of November 1, 2025, reconcile any discrepancy in its eligibility system, and reprocess Claim MUSC-20251101-4577-2 in accordance with the active Humana Advantage plan benefits applicable on that date. We request that payment be issued at the allowed amount of $2,371.17 previously calculated, or at the contractually applicable rate, without further delay. Should Humana require additional eligibility documentation or encounter records to complete this review, MUSC Health is prepared to provide them promptly. This appeal is submitted within the applicable reconsideration deadline of January 31, 2026.
